65-POUND JOCKEY WONDER OF THE TURF

Midget Sumter Doing Some Remarkable Riding Under Training of McCormick.

Jockey Albert Sumter is the baby of the saddle. He weighs but sixty-five pounds and he is truly a midget, but a perfectly formed little human, from toes to head, and the latter has its full quota of brains—horse sense shall we call it?

FISTIC KNIGHTS TO PLAY BALL

The battleground—no, the baseball field, is at the Crosby street grounds, and the game will go on as part of the outing and games of the High School Association.

FOUR CUBS TO COMPETE.

President Charles Murphy, of the champion Chicago National League Club, has entered four of his players in the field-day contests which are to be held at the Cincinnati baseball park on Tuesday.

NO BARS ON DOOR OF THE IRISH CLUB.

"F. S." of Brooklyn, writes if he can become a member of the Irish-American Athletic Club if he is not Irish. The constitution and by-laws of the Irish-American club permit that famous organization to take into athletic membership any amateur of decent repute.

YACHTS IN FINAL RACES.

The annual fall regatta of the Indian Harbor Yacht Club is being sailed today on the Sound, off Greenwich, and all the fastest boats in local waters are entered.
